1. Edge v 2. Eddie Guerrero v 3. Chris Benoit

Triple Threat

1SuT 10:39:81 80 (0142) 3-1-2-3-1-Mx-E-§-Mx-1-Mx-3-1E-Mx-3*2

RollUp-Pin; Out OK/gd, good action and pace, some added effect, good to close but did not drive.

§ denotes commercial break

Match elements held mostly good in this one. Additionally, the early quick shifts in momentum helped build and interest and some inherent effect with this being a preview for what should be an excellent contest on Sunday. However, while somewhat strong here, one must realize that this was not quite up to expectations, based on recent efforts.

1. Triple H and Rosey and Jamal and Chris Jericho and Christian w Ric Flair and Rico

5v5 Tag

2. Booker T and Kane and Jeff Hardy and Bubba Ray Dudley and Rob Van Dam

2SuT 8:23:97 70 1jm-Mx-2d-Mx-2v-1h-Mx-2k-⊗-⊗-2k-⊗*1h

Pedigree-Pin; OK out, some good action, average speed, some drive 5/8, closed out fairly, some added effect.

What stands out in the line is the points of lapse in the latter half, but while usually frowned upon, these can be forgiven as there was action, just not with the legal men. Match had good elements and the end melee was somewhat driving. Most compelling was seeing five of six chamber competitors here, akin to a preview, like the first tonight.

SHOW ASSESSMENT: Cannot assess based on the show score, as it is an aggregate and is suited for regular showings. Hence, will say that the show served well, but was not extraordinary, just good.

RATINGS: A figure assigned to a match based on balancing a match's elements such as start/break, pace, progression, psychology, mechanics, execution of move sets, key spots, and finish against the amount of time it is given (Minutes with the most relative quality are given primary emphasis) as an assessment of performance. Scale is adjusted to increase requisites for achieving higher ratings such as those in the 90s, 100s, and higher.
